

WES Health Centers

Location: 1463 W. Lycoming Street Philadelphia, 19140-3201

Geographical Areas Served: Philadelphia County

Mission of Organization: The mission of WES Health System is to promote the total wellness of the communities it serves through the provision of high-quality health and social services in a compassionate and effective manner. WES Health System strives to make these services highly responsive to the needs of culturally diverse populations.

Hiring for the following position(s): Job Coaches

Job Duties/Responsibilities: This is a direct service position involving working with persons with intellectual disabilities in integrated community settings.

Work in this position encompasses the skilled performances of job training and associated activities for supporting individuals with developmental disabilities in jobs within their communities. Specific skills include assisting in writing of formal programmatic objectives for trainee, job analysis of an employment site, task analysis of a job into its component parts, data collection as well as the ability to adapt to diverse work situations dependent on the positions secured for the trainee.

Why WES Health System? WES Health System is a prominent service provider of Behavioral and Physical Health and Support services for adults and children in Pennsylvania, Illinois, New Jersey, Georgia, and Delaware. WES Health System takes pride in the fact that it has the unique ability and responsibility to help improve the quality of life for the communities in which it serves.

Website: <https://drwes.org/>